

Tulip and Brutus

by Liz Ledden and Andrew Plant

Tulip and the ladybugs live different lives to Brutus and the stinkbugs – they NEVER play together! When a storm merges their habitats and a new threat looms, the bugs discover they have more in common than they realised.

Key points

- Contains themes around friendship, diversity, inclusion and acceptance via a non-didactic narrative.
- Celebrates differences through whimsy and humour.
- A wonderful resource for preschools and schools during Harmony Day.
- Reflects the playground or school, where young children encounter different behaviours.
- A colourful (and smelly!) exploration of bug life, which can lead to fun lessons and craft around stinkbugs, ladybugs and other small creatures.
- Vibrant artwork by an award-winning illustrator, that captures the characters' distinct personalities.
